Dental Rating Manual

Step 1: Get Starting Claim Costs from Table 1 by Service Category for Class I-Class IV for in and Out of Network.

Step 2(a): Look up the Deductible Credit from Table 2 based upon deductible amount, whether it is annual or lifetime, if it is waived for Class 1 and Class 2 services and under which category X-rays are covered for in and Out of Network. Deductible values not in table will be interpolated to determine the credit amount.

Step 2(b): Look up the Family Deductible limit in Table 3 based upon deductible amount, if it is waived for Class 1 and Class 2 services and under which category X-rays are covered and the Family Deductible Limit for in and Out of Network.

Step 2(c): Allocate the Deductible Credit into the appropriate Class in Table 4 based upon if it is waived for Class 1 and Class 2 services and under which category X-rays are covered for in and Out of Network.

Step 2(d): Calculate the Adjusted Deductible Credit as Step (2a) x Step (2b) x Step (2c) for in and Out of Network.

Step 3: Calculate the Adjusted claim Cost as the Starting Claim cost - Adjusted Deductible Credit Step (1) – Step (2d) for in and Out of Network.

Step 4: Look up the Deductible Disincentive Factor in Table 4 based upon the amount of the Deductible for in and Out of Network.

Step 5(a): Look up costs for covering Implants from Table 5 (if covered) for in and Out of Network.

Step 5(b): Look up costs for covering Sealants from Table 6 (if covered) for in and Out of Network.

Step 5(c): Look up costs for covering TMJ from Table 5 (if covered) for in and Out of Network.

Step 6: Calculate Adjusted Claim costs as Step (3) x Step (4) + Step (5a) + Step (5b) + Step (5c) for in and Out of Network.

Step 7(a): Look up Area Adjustments for Utilization from Table 7 based upon 3-digit Zip Code for in and Out of Network.

Step 7(b): Look up Area Adjustments for Charge for each Class of Service from Table 7 based upon 3-digit Zip Code for in and Out of Network.

Step 8(a): Look up the coinsurance percentages for the plan by service category for in and Out of Network.

Step (8b): Apply the fee limitation adjustment which calculates fee schedule differences between area specific charges and fee schedules used for reimbursement for in and Out of Network.

Step 8(c): Calculate the Effective Coinsurance by multiplying Step (8a) x Step 8(b) for in and Out of Network.

Step 9: Look up the Benefit Richness Adjustment from Table 8 to account for differences in benefit between the standard plan assumed and the actual plan selected for in and Out of Network.

Step 10(a): Calculate the Adjusted Claim Cost as Step (6) x Step (7a) x Step (7b) x Step (8c) x Step (9) for in and Out of Network.

Step (10b): Sum the total claim Costs for all 4 categories for in and Out of Network.

Step (11): Using the annual trend assumption from Table 9 calculate the total trend to apply from the midpoint of the base period to the midpoint of the projection period for in and Out of Network.

Step (12): Look up the adjustment for annual maximum based upon the claim probability distribution Table 10 for in and Out of Network.

Step (13): Look up the factor for Child Age definition from Table 11 for in and Out of Network.

Step (14): Calculate the Adjusted Claim Costs for Non-orthodontic benefits by multiplying the results from Step (10b) x Step (11) x Step (12) and Step (13) for in and Out of Network.

Step (15): Look up the starting claim costs of Orthodontic benefits from Table 12 for in and Out of Network.

Step (16): Look up the additional costs of TMJ from Table 5 if covered as a rider for in and Out of Network.

Step (17): Look up factor from Table 5 if separate maximum applies for Implants benefits for in and Out of Network.

Step (18): Look up factor from Table 5 if separate maximum applies for TMJ benefits for in and Out of Network.

Step (19): Look up factor due to demographic/census differences from Table 13 for in and Out of Network.

Step (20): Calculate Total Claim Costs as {Step (14) + Step (15) x Step (11) + Step (16) x Step (11)} x Step (17) x Step (18) x Step (19) x for in and Out of Network.

Step (21): Subtract the Copay amount from the claim cost calculated in Step (20) for in and out of Network.

Step (22): Add the Network Access Fee to the claim costs calculated in Step (21). These fees will vary based upon the network being utilized and can range from $0.00 for a non-network plan to $1.25 on a PEPM basis.

Step (23): Blend the In-network and Out of Network Claim costs by multiplying the In-network costs in Step (22) by the penetration percentage and adding it to the Out of Network costs in Step (22) x (1-penetration percentage).

Step (24): Determine final premium by taking the Final Claim Costs in Step (23) and applying the expense model to calculate premium.

Step 4:

Find Annual Maximum Adjustment

$$\text{Annual Max Adj} = \frac{\text{Claim Cost above adj. ded} - \text{Claim Cost above deduct}}{\text{Claim Cost above adj. deduct}}$$

IN Network Annual Max Adj = 0.8886
