General Job InformationJob Summary

This position is in the Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking (DISB), Compliance Analysis Division (CAD). The primary purpose of this position is to manage the development and administration of DISB's market compliance examinations of insurers, securities firms, banks and money services businesses, and other financial services firms licensed and operating in the District of Columbia (District). The incumbent is responsible for ensuring that the work of the division is accomplished, such as conducting research and analysis of industry sectors to establish best practices, standards, and guidelines for the design, delivery and results of financial products and services; and analyzing information from other bureaus to identify and define key market factors that drive change in each industry sector. (Factor Market is a microeconomics term used in referring to a market where goods and services, raw materials or physical capital are sold. Firms buy productive resources in return for making factor payments at factor prices. The inputs you require to produce end products or services are sold in the factor market.)

Duties and Responsibilities

Manages the activities of the division related to the scheduling, planning, and examination of insurers, securities firms, money services businesses and other financial services firms conducting business in the District. Responsible for identifying trends, key market conditions, and operational risks; and develops strategies to review such conditions and risks to determine impact on the businesses and consumers in the District. Recommends appropriate corrective actions; and serves as a resource about issues involving compliance with District financial laws and regulations. Oversees pre-exam planning; completion of risk reviews' examination testing; documentation of findings; resolution of differences with firms and individuals being examined; and the preparation of exam reports.

Qualifications and Education

This position requires Specialized Experience that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position, and that is typically in or related to the work of the position to be filled. To be creditable, specialized experience must have been equivalent to at least the next lower grade level in the normal line of progression.
